

PRIVACY POLICY – NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES – Effective Date: April 14, 2003

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully – If you have any questions about this notice, please contact the Privacy Officer by dialing (907) 276-2400.

INTRODUCTION

At the Anchorage Radiation Therapy Center, we are committed to treating and using protected health information about you responsibly. This notice describes the personal information we collect, and how and when we use or disclose that information. It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR HEALTH RECORD/INFORMATION

Each time you visit a hospital, physician, or healthcare provider, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnosis, treatment, a plan for future care or treatment, and billing-related information.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and provide you a description of our privacy practices. We will abide by the terms of this notice.

USES AND DISCLOSURES

How we may use and disclose Medical information about you.

The following categories describe examples of the way we use and disclose medical information:

For Treatment: We may use medical information about you to provide you treatment or services. For example, information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other member of your healthcare team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you.

We may also provide other physicians or subsequent healthcare providers, participating in your medical care, with copies of various reports that should assist him or her in their decisions to manage and coordinate your medical needs.

For Payment: We may use and disclose medical information about your treatment and services to bill and collect payments from you, your insurance company, or a third party payer. For example, we need to give your insurance company information about your treatment so they will pay us or reimburse you for the treatment. We may also tell your health plan about treatment you are going to receive to determine whether your plan will cover it.

For Health Care Options: Members of the medical staff and/or quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. The results will then be used to continually improve the quality of care for all patients we serve. For example, we may combine medical information about many patients to evaluate the need for new services or treatment. We may disclose information to doctors, nurses, and other students for educational purposes. And we may combine medical information we have with that of other hospitals to see where we can make improvements.

We may remove information that identifies you from this set of medical information to protect your privacy.

We may also use and disclose medical information:

- To business associates we have contracted with to perform the agreed upon service and billing for it;
- To remind you that you have an appointment for medical care
- To assess your satisfaction with our services
- To tell you about possible treatment alternatives
- To tell you about health-related benefits or services
- To inform funeral directors consistent with applicable law
- For population based activities relating to improving health and reducing health care costs
- For conducting training programs or reviewing competence of health care professionals

Business Associates: There are some services provided in our organization through contracts with business associates. Examples include utilizing a billing service to submit claims, and engineers hired to maintain equipment that holds personal health information through electronic media. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our business associate so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do and bill you or your third-party payer for services rendered. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Individuals Involved In Your Care or Payment For Your Care:

We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care or who helps pay for your care. In addition, we may disclose medical information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.

Research: We may disclose information to researchers when an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information has approved their research.

Future Communications: We may communicate to you via newsletters, mail outs, or other means regarding treatment options, health related information, disease-management programs, wellness programs, follow-up appointments, or other community based initiatives or activities our facility is participating in.

Organized Health Care Arrangement: This facility and its medical staff members have organized and are presenting you this document as a joint notice. Information will be shared as necessary to carry out treatment, payment and health care operations. Physicians and caregivers may have access to protected health information in their offices to assist in reviewing past treatment as it may affect treatment at the time.

As required by law, we may also use and disclose health information for the following types of entities including but not limited to:

- Food and Drug Administration

- Public Health or Legal Authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability
- Correctional Institutions
- Workers Compensation Agents
- Organ and Tissue Donation Organizations
- Military Command Authorities
- Health Oversight Agencies
- Funeral Directors, Coroners and Medical Directors
- National Security and Intelligence Agencies
- Protective Services for the President and Others

Law Enforcement/Legal Proceedings: We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

State-Specific Requirements: Many states have requirements for reporting including population-based activities relating to improving health or reducing health care costs. Some states have separate privacy laws that may apply additional legal requirements. If the State privacy laws are more stringent than Federal privacy laws, the State law preempts the Federal law.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

Although your health record is the physical property of the healthcare practitioner or facility that compiled it, you have the Right to:

- Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524. Usually, this includes medical and billing records, but does not include psychotherapy notes. We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the hospital will review your request and denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.
- Amend: If you feel that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information as provided in 45 CFR 164.528. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for the hospital. We may deny your request for an amendment and if this occurs, you will be notified of the reason for the denial.
- An Account of Disclosures: You have the right to request an accounting of disclosures as provided in 45 CFR 164.528. This is a list of certain disclosures we make of your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment or health care operations.
- Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on medical information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations as provided by 45 CFR 164.522. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment of your care, like a family member or friend. For example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a surgery you had.

We are not required to agree to your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment.

- Request Confidential Communications: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you may ask that we contact you at work or by U.S. Mail. The center will grant requests for confidential communications at alternative locations and/or via alternative means only if the request is submitted in writing and the written request includes a mailing address where the individual will receive bills for service rendered by the facility and related correspondence regarding payment for services. Please realize we reserve the right to contact you by other means and at other locations if you fail to respond to any communication from us that requires a response. We will notify you in accordance with your original request prior to attempting to contact you by other means or at another location.

To exercise any of your rights, please obtain the required forms from the Privacy Official and submit your request in writing.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We reserve the right to change this notice and the revised or changed notice will be effective for information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. The current notice will be posted in the center and include the effective date.

COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the center by contacting the main number and asking for the Privacy Officer or with the Secretary of the Department of the Health and Human Services. The address for the Office for Civil Rights is listed below:

Office for Civil Rights

US Department of Health and Human Services; 200 Independence Avenue, S.W.; Room 509F, HHH Bldg.; Washington D.C. 20201

All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

OTHER USES OF MEDICAL INFORMATION

Other uses and disclosures of medical information not covered by this notice, or the laws that apply to us, will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or disclose medical information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose medical information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we have provided to you.
